FBI was told to blame Anthrax scare on Al Qaeda by White House officials

BY JAMES GORDON MEEK
DAILY NEWS WASHINGTON BUREAU

Saturday, August 2nd 2008, 6:32 PM

WASHINGTON - In the immediate aftermath of the 2001 anthrax attacks, White House officials repeatedly pressed FBI Director Robert Mueller to prove it was a second-wave assault by Al Qaeda, but investigators ruled that out, the Daily News has learned.

After the Oct. 5, 2001, death from anthrax exposure of Sun photo editor Robert Stevens, Mueller was "beaten up" during President Bush's morning intelligence briefings for not producing proof the killer spores were the handiwork of terrorist mastermind Osama Bin Laden, according to a former aide.

"They really wanted to blame somebody in the Middle East," the retired senior FBI official told The News.

On October 15, 2001, President Bush said, "There may be some possible link" to Bin Laden, adding, "I wouldn't put it past him." Vice President Cheney also said Bin Laden's henchmen were trained "how to deploy and use these kinds of substances, so you start to piece it all together."

But by then the FBI already knew anthrax spilling out of letters addressed to media outlets and to a U.S. senator was a military strain of the bioweapon. "Very quickly [Fort Detrick, Md., experts] told us this was not something some guy in a cave could come up with," the ex-FBI official said. "They couldn't go from box cutters one week to weapons-grade anthrax the next." jmeek@nydailynews.com

So the non-elected bush regime, which said it wants to "cull useless eaters", wipes its hands of anthrax and stays the lethal course by other means. Sanofi-Aventis is sending alleged bird flu 'vaccine' (made in China) to the US this month, so the deliberately engineered pandemic will be released soon. If it's in late Aug., it will be an excuse for Oct. martial law & KBR concentration camps, canceling the fake elections. BioShield I & II mandate forced injections and felonize resistance, but citizens would be fully justified in fighting to the death in self-defense if anyone tried to forcibly inject them with Anything, particularly flu 'vaccines' that are known to cause disease and death.

Jew, and is believed to be a Mossad spy. Dr Ivins was working with the FBI and identified the Anthrax strain as a Ft Detrick weaponized strain. They tried to frame Steven Hatfil, but he sued and won millions of dollars. The FBI then panicked and murdered their own forensics expert. Once the truth comes out the blood trail leads directly to the White House. Motive? Patriot Act!

Bush and his master Cheney will never be brought to justice....no way will a leader from the states ever be brought to the Hague for justice....are you kiddin' me.....the U.S gov runs the world and even if they were found guilty in the states, there would be enough controveresy by a great number of Americans who still believe in them....If McSenile wins, then forget about any kind of questioning

The cynical quote by the ex-FBI agent ("They couldn't go from box cutters one week to weapons-grade anthrax the next.") reveals that the FBI is no doubt aware that the government conspiracy tale of "Muslim bogeymen" pulling off the 911 attacks is a hoax. Don't expect the FBI to develop any courage and arrest any of the real guilty parties, however, as those agents still need to keep their jobs, right? For all the government claims that Osama did the job, the FBI does not want Osama for that caper. Wonder why? The FBI says there is no evidence linking Osama to the crime..
